Any resulting costs will be charged to the participant or their club. The organiser does not provide supervision for underage athletes. Responsibility for supervision lies with parents or the athlete's home club.

Data Protection: Protecting your personal data is important to us. We process your data exclusively in accordance with the applicable legal provisions (GDPR, TKG 2021). Below you will find the key information regarding the processing of your data in connection with registration for and participation in the training camp.

1. Controller

Responsible for data processing:
Judo Landesverband Oberösterreich
Auf der Gugl 30, 4020 Linz office@judo-ooelv.at

2. Data Processed

As part of the registration process for the training camp, we process the following personal data:

- Name, date of birth, contact details (email, telephone number)
- Club affiliation
- Health information (only if necessary, e.g. allergies or intolerances)
- Emergency contact

This data is used solely for the organisation, execution, and administration of the training camp.

3. Data Sharing

Data will only be shared if necessary for the purpose of the event (e.g. with accommodation providers, coaches, or emergency medical services). No data will be passed on to third parties for marketing purposes.

4. Storage Period

Data will be stored for the duration of the training camp and for billing purposes. After the event, it will be deleted no later than 12 months afterwards, unless statutory retention obligations apply.

During the training camp, photos and videos may be taken by the organiser or persons commissioned by the organiser. These recordings may be used for documentation, reporting (e.g. on the federation's website, in social media, in federation publications, or in press releases), as well as for promotional purposes of the federation. By participating in the training camp, you consent to the creation and publication of such recordings.
